THE WELCOME RAIN.

The Shower Last Evening-Interesting Facts from the Signal Office.

The backbone of the drought was broken last evening by a very heavy shower of rain. The drizzle on Friday, which, however, was very grateful, was but the overture of the splendid shower of yesterday. The min began about half-past four by a slow and stately patter, which soon gave way to a wild swirl, and the rain, swept by the wind, drove through the streets in perfect torrents. The fall continued very heavy for upward of half an hour. but the rain still continued for some time longer The amount of the rainfall during this period as reported at the Signal Office was 1 15-100 inche The rain began again at seven e'clock, falling steadily for some time, and the parched carth and withered vegetation has been greatly refreshed. It was not as cool after the shower as was expected, but there is some consolation' in the fact that if was the "breaking up shower," and that the hot weather is now a thing of the past. The shower was purely a local one, but there were local showers all through the middle section yesterday. It is probable that there will be a good deal of rain during this month. It is very generally supposed that August was a very cool month this year, but at the Signal Office last evening reporter of THE REPUBLICAN was told that average temperature during August was higher than any year since the office has been established except 1872. The first week in September was the hottest ever known; while the months of June and

July were about the average. At the quarterly communication of Pennsylvania, held in Grand Lodge of Masons of Pennsylvania, held in Philadelphia. 'The Navy Department received Saturday a report from Lieutenant R. M. Berry, com Arctic search. The letter is dated Petropaulovski Kamischatka, July 24, and proceeds as follows: "I have the honor to inform the Department of the arrival of this vessel at this port at seven p.m. of the 19th, thirty-three days from San Francisco, Cal. The health of the officers and crew is excel-lent. I found in portthe Russian corveite Streloch, which had arrived a few days previously from Vindevistock. Her commanding officer informed me that just before salling he received a telegram from his government directing him to offer any service within his power, which he has done, by offering the use of his men and assisting me to to Paymaster Smith, U. I could obtain very little dried fish for dog food, as the salmon are not yet dried, but hope to get the remainder farther orth. I shall sail for St. Michael's this morning.

A Compliment to John P. Sousa. In days gone by the Marine Band was a permanent Kilkerny cat-fight. The elements didn't mix. The leaders who became familiar with the men under them were unable to keep any discipline in the ranks. A climax was reached when Schneider, the late lamented, brought the band down to the level of a scene after a raffle for an eight-day stove. John P. Sousa, the present leader, is a gentleman, and has by his quiet demeanor and sterling merit compelled the members of the band to recognize that fact. Philip Manco, ne of the sons of Sunny Italy, made a few frivoious charges sgainst Sousa a few days ago. A friend of Manco (perhaps his counsel, a lawyer named Newman), told a cock-and-bull story about it to the reporter of a morning paper, who pub-lished a ridiculous article on Saturday morning. Every charge that Maneo made was heard patiently by a board of officers at Marine Headquarters on Saturday, Manco's lawyer being present. All of them were disproved in tolo, and Manco will prob-ably be dismissed, as he should be. The board complimented Mr. Souss on the fact that the band was better disciplined under his management than ever before in its history. Thus does great good come out of evil.

Troops for Yorktown.
Colonel David E. Austen, Colonel Horatib C. King, and Captain F. D. Ackerman, repreenting the Thirteenth New York Regiment, ar senting the Thirteenth New York Regiment, arrived here yesterday, and were met by Colonel William G. Moore and Lieutenant Goddard, of the Washington Light Infantry. The regiment will arrive here, en route for Yorktown, on Sunday, the 16th of October, and will be received by the Washington Light Infantry Corps and quartered at their armory for the day. It is probable that Atner will cater for them. They expect to parade six hundred strong, and will be accompanied by their band of fafty-four pieces, under the leadership of Harvey B. Dodsworth. Chaplain Henry their band of fifty-four pieces, under the leader-ship of Harvey B. Dodsworth. Chaptain Henry Ward Beecher will accompany the regiment, and may be induced to preach while in this city. Be-sides this regiment, which during the war made a decided name for itself under the title of the Thir-teenth Brooklyn, the Washington Light Infantry will perform escort duty to the First Michigan Regiment, which will reach here on the evening of October 16, and for the Roxbury (Mass.) City Guards and the Charlestown (Mass.) Cadets.

Senator Beck Hedges Senator Beck, who is still in Washington, stated yesterday to a REPUBLICAN representa-tive that the newspaper paragraphs representing him as having said he would vote for Senator Anthony to be President of the Scuate in order to or-ganize that body do not state the facts as they are. "I never said I would vote for a Republican for "I never said I would vote for a Republican for any purpose, and I never will vote for a Republican. I vote for men of my own party." So said Mr. Beck. The probability is that he finds it necessary to "put himself right" in this matter, because such unexampled liberality would not be tolerated in the Botton State of "Old Kaintuck," and unless be can explain away this misrepresentation he is in dauger of being relegated to private life, notwithstanding the fact that the recently elected members of the Legislature were by a large majority instructed to vote for his re-election to the United States Senate.

FOREIGN PUBLICATIONS. Important Decision by the Treasury Depariment as to their Exemption.

Considerable importations of foreign Considerable importations of foreign magazines, chiefly English, have recently been made into the United States in the mails. On one day, alone twenty-five mail-pouches filled with foreign magazines passed westward on the Grand Trunk Rallway, coming into the United States at Port Huron, Mich. A collector of customs at a Northwestern port assessed duty upon certain printed matter, other than books, imported in the mails from Canada for sale, and appeal was taken from the collector's decision, which appeal has been sustained by life Treasury Department. The question involved in this appeal was whether, under the law, printed matter other than books deposited in the mails in pusuance of postal treaties and conventions in on account of its being imported for sale or for purposes other than the personal use of March 3, 1879, provides that printed matter, other than books, received in the mails from foreign countrier, under the provisions of the postal treaties and conventions, shall be free of customs duties. Both the Postmaster-General and the Attorney-General, to whom the question has been submitted.

Rooms for Rent* at Ford's. magazines, chiefly English, have recently been express the opinion that under the section of law cited no customs duties accrue on printed matter, other than box's, deposited in the mails in the manner prescribed in said postal treaties or conventions, whether intended for sale or for the per-sonal use of the addressee. The Treasury Depart-ment concurs in this opinion, and as it is understood that the magazines in question were entitled to be received in the mails from Canada, it follows that no customs duties are chargeable thereon. Fairfax County Republicans At a convention of the Republicans of

Fairfax County, held at Fairfax Court-House, Va., September 8, 1881, to nominate a candidate for the house of delegates, E. F. Crocker, of Falls Church, was elected chairman and Edwin O. Betts, of Mount Vernon, scoretary. A communication from the Rendjuster convention, which met at this place September 7, 1881, was read, and a committee of conference of two from each district was ap-pointed to confer with a similar committee from that organization. Report of the conference com-mittee was adopted. B. W. Clark offered the followmittee was adopted. B. W. Clark offered the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted. Whereas the Republicans of Fairfax County, this day in convention assembled to nominate a candidate for the house of delegates, recognizing the necessity of uniting all of the anti-Bourbon element and solidifying the same in favor of the Liberal movement, do hereby piedge themselves to the support of the anti-Bourbon principles in any and all forms, both in this county and in the Legislature of Virginia, and we hereby declare it to be our ufnatierable purpose to net with the Resoluster party and all good men, regardless of party, in carrying out said principles.

Recolved, beaucer, That we want it distinctly understood that we do not intend to abandon our party organization nor to sunagonize its time-honored principles.

P. W. Clark, R. R. Farr, George L. Kenyon, and T. B. Graham were placed in nomination, when the committee proceeded to ballot for choice, which resulted in the nomination of R. R. Farr on the third ballot, having received eighteen ballots Mr. R. Ross Perry, who for some time has ably performed the duties of Assistant District Attorney, has forwarded to Colonel Corkniti his resignation of that position. Both Mr. Perry and resignation of that position. Both Mr. Perry and J. Sager, and Alfred Whaley were appointed a committee to wait upon Mr. Forr and inform him of his nomination, John B. Troth offered the following resolution which was unanimously Restred, That the Republican party is not dis-organized; that it will not be disorganized, and will not need to be reorganized by General Wick-nam or anyhody else. Convention then adjourned.

The Department has re slied to both these dispatches that arms will be arnished upon a regular requisition made on the ordnance Department. "Rooms for Rent," with which Manager

Ford opens the season at the Opera-House this week, is a comedy which for three weeks afforded infinite amusement to New York play-goers at the Bijon. In no part tedlous, always lively, filled with a succession of indicrous surprises, it is un-doubtedly destined to make a good run through-out the season. The incidents are located for the most part in a house where Mr. Cleveland, a sim ple-hearted old gentleman of a very susceptible turn of mind, rents rooms. It will be seen that it gives anple verge and scope for fun. The dramatic persons comprise, besides Mr. Cicveland, a divorced wife, who is an opera-sloped, an iraselble detective, who is always on the trail of desperate criminals, and his wife, who is an artist in oils, and whose erratic proceedings with her model for Othello arouses her husband's jealousy; two apparently single gentlemen, the one who is the model aforesald, otherwise a young man, without visible means of support, with a perchant for the cornet, with which he affords infinite solnce also an artist in oils, who is really the husband of and soild comfort to his fellow-roomers; the other, the opera-slager, totally ignorant of his wife's whereabouts and a dancing-master fresh from Copenhagan, desperately in love with Alice, the nicce of Othor Rombers, a valiant soldier, who belongs to the luterior Department" (perhaps a portrait that will be recognized). The piece was withdrawn from the Hijou only because prior engagements made it necessary to take the road; otherwise it would probably be still enjoying a profitable run at that house. Organized during the crusade and known as the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, urged on to almost desperate enthusiasm by the sorrow and suffering of the women and children whom they find in damp basements and fourth-story tenement houses, they go to God and then to our officials in prayer for some redress of the wrongs daily perpetrated by the ruin flend. The meeting yesterlay was led by Mrs. Roach, presi-dent of the District Union, who related two incidents, one showing how this curse had brought ruin and sorrow upon a young man, and the other upon a husband and his family. Mr. Will Cohen presided at the organ and led the singing very acceptably. Several signed the pledge, and some present spoke of how they had worked against the licensing of saloons in their neighborhood, but their effects but here he fled. their efforts had been baffled.
